CASE NO. 20-BK-54684

CHAPTER 7

JUDGE:

MOTION FOR VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL OF CHAPTER 7 CASE

Now comes Debtor, Joshua Lucas, pursuant to 11 USC §707(a), who humbly requests this Court Dismiss the above Chapter 7 bankruptcy case. After the filing of this case, debtor Joshua Lucas realized that his personal and business accounting and finances were intractably intertangled throughout 2020, and the addition of a $10,000 EIDL and $35,900 SBA business loan shortly before his business closed further made his accounting difficult to sort out.

Trustee Stubbins has asked for a detailed accounting of the EIDL and SBA loans, which Joshua Lucas has determined is next to impossible to provide in a timely manner because his accounting and records are in such disarray. Thus, he will be unable to provide the documentation that the trustee needs for the administration of this case. Therefore, Joshua Lucas requests this Court Dismiss this case to give him the necessary time he needs to sort out his finances and records, after which he will decide whether to again file for Chapter 7 relief.
